Not for the reasons I've seen mentioned in other reviews though.

I think Tom Hanks did a good job as Mr. Rogers. Chris Cooper seemed like he was forced in this role. Matthew Rhys felt odd too like he had no real emotion. The other characters seemed average, you feel little emotion for so it's more like watching from the outside without the connection. The pacing is kinda slow which doesn't help this either. This makes the whole movie seem boring. It probably could have been decent, I simply couldn't get past the acting. I felt like I was watching some sort of made for TV movie with expensive actors.
