I had to do a double take, is that Kevin James? Yup, I had to look it up to be sure. I went damn. Then as I watched more and more, I kept going "damn Kevin" but not in a good way. This was like Kevin eating a bowl of frosted flakes and trying to be a bad guy at the same time all the while trying to keep a straight face. Then when Kevin took off his shirt and pointed to the fake tatoo on his fat body and saying, to the brotherhood. Huh? I went really Kevin, that's all you got? Jeez. Kevin gave it a shot, and failed miserably. The dude needs to go back to comedy and leave the bad guy stuff to the bad guys. As bad as this movie was I have to say it was better than watching the daily news right now. Oh and btw, what was the key for you might ask. I'll let the cat out of the bag. It was a key to a locker filled with corn balls and cheese.

This 2020 thriller features a teenage girl, Becky (Lulu Wilson) who is angry because her mother recently died from Cancer. Soon, her father, Jeff

(Joel McHale) tells her that he wants to marry a woman he's been dating which doesn't help her mood. Soon, things get more complex when a group of escaped, Neo-Nazi prisoners arrive at their home and are searching for a computer key. Becky uses her aggression to her advantage trying to outwit them. Kevin James (The King of Queens) plays the leader, Dominick who is determined to get the key. This isn't bad, but I didn't like the ending and the key's use is never explained. Wilson does a decent job, there's gruesome make-up effects and James does a great, surprising job as a baddie.

The film combines aspects of "Home Alone. Rambo. Die Hard" and if you don't mind violence and suspense, check it out. Watch becky (2020) online free episodes. Watch becky (2020) online free stuff.
