Since I watched 25th hours, I thought Spike Lee is god-blessed genius. How could he make such a unfinished movie Blackkkklansman? The movie use lot of great cinematography, yet the characters are too stupid to believe as realistic. Is it based on real story? The question still remains. I feel the edit is rough and could be done with more deep dialogue and character development rather than obviously showing the political message "black power. I never want to watch it again.
