SOUND OF ART

COVID-19 FUNDRAISER

#Artforgood.

Purpose of this fundraiser:

Sound of Art believes in the power of art to restore during this difficult time, and we want to extend Sound of Art's role as a bridge of support beyond our artists into the wider community.

This fundraiser will be extended till 22 June 2020, or earlier if art is fully sold.

Works selected for the fundraiser center around the theme of A Song for Tomorrow.

There is always a new song to sing, about our hope for Tomorrow's blessings and new mercies every morning as we Consider the Sunrise. Mountains stand in our way, but these mountains also speak of our mountaintop experiences connecting us with the Divine. When we fix our gaze above, we cultivate hope within our soul; we have strength and faith that we can be More than a Conqueror.

Sale proceeds:

Each of the four participating artists has chosen a charity to help in partnership with Sound of Art. 100% of sale proceeds will go to their selected charities.

1. COVID-19 Family Assistance Fund by Beyond Social Services

Beyond Social Services is helping families who have been hit hard by the COVID-19 situation through food and financial assistance.

2. Wok the Talk by YMCA

Wok the Talk supports seniors with grocery packs and provides meals for vulnerable groups in Singapore. They use the services of hawkers and drivers, thereby providing them with much needed income during the pandemic.

3. The Alliance of Guest Workers Outreach (AGWO) by Hope Initiative Alliance

AGWO aims at reaching out to migrant workers in Singapore, providing them with assistance and services - such as health care services, legal services, and upskilling opportunities.

4. SIBKL Covid-19 Relief Fund

Funds raised will be used to provide food and aid for hospital frontliners in Malaysia.

Introducing:

JACINTHA PILLAY

Jacintha has enjoyed drawing and being creative since young. She pursued a conventional career as lawyer and still practices today, but in 2013, she started painting completely by chance. Being self-taught, her works evolved over the process of experimentation and exploration. She has come to embrace her God-given passion for painting, with the simple desire to honor this gift for His purposes. Jacintha paints from her happy place, drawing inspiration from the day-to-day wonders - whether it is by a bible verse that speaks to her, an event or music. Jacintha recently held her first successful solo exhibition.

TOMORROW
S$2800

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS
91CM X 121CM
2020

This piece was painted amidst the chaos of the Covid-19 pandemic. The vibrant yet tender pink hues speak of hope and joy. We are to shift our focus from dwelling on present circumstances, to praying and trusting God more instead. The artist has a strong conviction that this painting is meant to help raise funds for people affected by the crisis so that they can look forward to a better tomorrow.

THIS IS MY SONG
S$2000

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS
76CM X 102CM
2018

This piece is a melody of colours and textures exploding in rich, lively shades of red, orange and pink, inspired by the divine love poem the Song of Solomon. It expresses a heart on fire for Jesus that pushes our thoughts out of anxious darkness and puts them into an outpouring of open adoration. Conversely, we experience the passion and longing of our heavenly Bridegroom for us. Let the Lord's eternal song of love be sung over you, as He will never leave you nor forsake you.

Introducing:

ERICA WEE

Erica Wee is a Singaporean who relocated to Kuala Lumpur with her family over 12 years ago as a result of her husband's work. In 2016, Erica picked up her long-forgotten painting brushes and fell in love all over again. Since then, Erica has been spending hours daily experimenting and challenging herself in different painting techniques, styles and mediums.

In her COVID-19 Wildlife series, Erica expresses in each artwork her journey through anxiety, worry, fear and doubts arising from this pandemic, and ultimately, resting and trusting in Him and His promises. Through this monochromatic series, Erica endeavours to inspire others to similarly find encouragement and strength in Christ, while reaching out and helping others who are more in need.

BREAKTHROUGH

S$1,800

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS
92CM X 122CM

“Through you we push back our enemies, Through
Your name we trample our foes.”

~Hebrew Verse

No matter how overwhelming our situations can be, no matter how depressing reality seems, our Hope is tough and robust. Providence comes charging down from above and all terror perishes as dust under His feet.

While troubles crumble under the fearsome destruction of Provenance, our bruised hearts He will not break. This masterpiece juxtaposes the ferociousness and gentleness of the Divine. With Providence on our side, we will be able to heal, triumph and breakthrough.

ON THE LOOKOUT

S$2,200

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS
92CM X 122CM

When COVID-19 started enveloping various corners of the world, chaos, panic and fear ensued. From newspaper reports, to well-meaning advice from friends, information was everywhere, accurate or otherwise. Who can we believe? Who can we rely on?

Just like how groomsmen and bridesmaids wait in anticipation for the wedding, we fix our souls on better days to come that will last forever.

Like a Leopard on the lookout, the Artist is reminded to set her mind on things above, on our sure and secure Hope.

OUT OF DARKNESS
S$1800

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS
60CM X 120CM

When the pandemic hit, the world entered into an unprecedented lockdown. Movements were restricted, livelihoods gravely affected. Reality hit home hard for many. Fear and chaos ensued – when will we see the light?

We are a chosen people, a prized treasure. The blazing eyes pierce into our souls, examining if we are in darkness or the light.

The Artist was reminded of the Divine promise to us that we will be “called out of darkness into his wonderful light”. YES! With determination and faith, we will be able to get out of this.

EARNEST INTENTIONS
S$1800

ACRYLIC ON CANVAS
60CM X 120CM

Be still and patient. Divine Providence will come at the right time.

Regardless of our situations, the Artist is reminded of the Servant’s heart. A servant embodies earnestness and humility, and serves others with meekness and gentleness despite his own trials. He is rooted in the deep confidence that the Divine is in control over all things.

Introducing:

GLACY SOH

CONSIDER THE MOUNTAINS
S$1500

OIL ON CANVAS
46CM X 36CM
2019

This is the scenic mountainside of Kyrgyzstan - wild, rustic and flourishing with beautiful life. We are invited unto a journey with much unknown beyond the woods and to ascend the mountain with our Creator. Mountaintops are places of rich divine revelation; scaling it represents the connection of man with the divine. We need not be afraid of the mountain in front of us, as Jesus said you only need faith as small as mustard seed to move it.

CONSIDER THE SUNRISE
S$2000

MIXED MEDIA ON ART PAPER (FRAMED)
30CM X 21CM
2019

The sunrise is a meditation on divine faithfulness. In the warmth and overwhelming energy of the rising sun, all earthly things become as silhouettes. The bird soaking the embrace of the sun's warmth and the trees seem to fade away from the eyes in comparison to the radiance of the new day. This masterpiece seems to echo Helen Howarth Lemmel (1922):

*And the things of earth will grow
strangely dim, In the light of His glory and grace.*

MORE THAN A CONQUEROR II
S$3000

MIXED MEDIA ON CANVAS
80CM X 80CM

“... we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.” This thoughtful exploration of the passage from the book of Romans is achieved through the careful interplay between the yellowish-gold and black hues in this abstract painting. Consider how the yellowish-gold almost seems to emerge in the foreground, out of the morass of black. We are beckoned to consider that, even in the darkest times, we are never far from the love of God. In other words, we come forth as gold.
