Printing settings

Print out this document on a full A4 size page with a display scale of 100%.

To verify whether the ring size indicator has been printed out in the correct format, measure the example below with a ruler. It should be exactly 2 centimeters.

How do you use this ring size indicator?

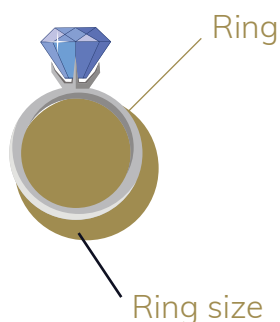

Select a ring that is a perfect fit on the finger that the ring will be worn on. This ring can be measured as follows.

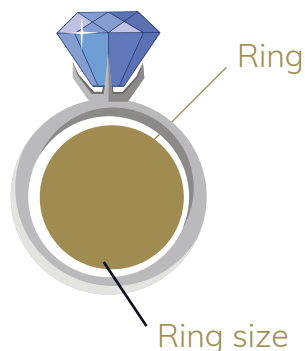

- Place the ring on one of the circles in the chart below.
- The inner circle of the ring has to be the same size as the circle on the document.
- After that, you can read off the ring size right away. This size indicates the diameter of the ring.

If the ring falls somewhere between two sizes, we would advise you to select the larger size.

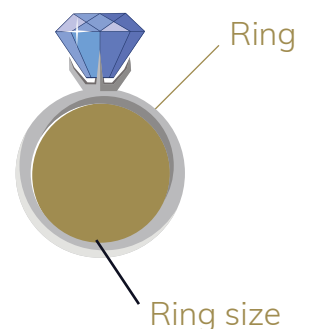

The inner circle of the ring does not match the perimeter of the ring

The inner circle of the ring does not match the perimeter of the ring.

The inner circle of the ring does match the perimeter of the ring.
