I can't even recommend this on ppv or blue ray my conscious won't allow it. Charlie's angels star kelly. Charlie 27s angels real. Charlie 27s angels 2. So the first 20 minutes were horrific and horrendously cringey then whilst predictable it was paced right and Kristen Stewart carried a pretty terrible script and a poorly performing supporting cast to its underwhelming horrifically predictable ending. There were a few laughs some even when they were meant others when horrifically bad. But the film is nowhere near the worst this year let alone ever but with the cast it should have been so much better with a nearer script and story I mean they even made Patrick Stewart seem robotic and cringey as hell. Literally only Stewart gave me anything to cling onto with this film. One to wait for at home when your half paying attention unless your a film freak like me with a membership at a cinema.
