All negative reviews about this movie are based on how apparently they messed up accents and that the environment didn't quite look like Dhaka. Who the eff cares. It's an action movie that isn't exactly realistic in a lot of areas but that's not the point. The point is to give the audience an intense, action heavy escape for two hours and it certainly delivers. So shut up all you whiny little sooks and to all you action fans sit back and enjoy some of the best fight choreography and filming techniques I've ever seen since The RAID and John Wick and my boy Hemsworth brings the heat in a turn of pure R rated bad assery that suits him just as good as Thor did! Woooo lets gooooo.
