Isaiah Mustafa, James McAvoy / Story=Derry, Maine. A small town with a terrible curse. Every 27 years, an ancient being comes up from the sewer depths to feed off of the fear of children. Since it's defeat in 1989, Pennywise has grown hungry, and is now back with a vengeance. If the losers club doesn't defeat him this time, their worst fear will become a reality, with nothing to stop him. The clock is ticking. Who's going to be scared first? / Country=Canada /

/ Directors=Andy Muschietti / Runtime=2 Hours 49 minute

It was a ok movie overall, but was way too long though. After previews expect to spend 3 HOURS in the theater. If the story would have been better, 3 hours would have been ok, but the story was just so so. Also there was too much CGI and too little Pennywise. The best part of IT is the clown, and there was too little of him imo.

But as long as you go in knowing this is a 3 hour movie, has too much CGI and too litle Pennywise, then you will probably think its a ok/good movie as well.

I do hope the movie does well though because I would love to see a third installment, but next time, have more Pennywise.

Having seen IT back in 2017, I had to see this sequel, IT Chapter 2!

The film follows the 7 friends who now grown adults leading different lives to reunite to stop Pennywise for good!

The film was epic! But way too long! I understand that there is 7 characters that all need to be developed & that with Stephen Kings books they're over 1000 pages long, but it isn't the point. The film still could be shorter, snappier & less draggier! There were parts which easily could've been cut out, or fine tuned in order to keep the film within the 2 hour run time.

The film did however has some terrifying & gruesome visuals! Pennywise was great as always & the actor playing him done an awesome job!

Overall it's a solid sequel which draws you in! 8/10.
