Oh, man this stinks! Right away we get an apparently very cocky police dude disengaging the safety on his gun and cocking it, then marching with it pointed straight into a dark forest with no target anywhere in sight, nor any idea of where one would be, and he's carrying no flashlight. A dumb and dangerous depiction, and hopefully there's a category of people who wouldn't ever consider doing this, if they had any weapons training (or common sense) at all. It's a recipe for a horrible accident, IRL.

Then, it's a scene with crosses dangling from the ceiling, a crappy candlelit shrine, and weird writings on the wall. (Clichés galore.) At less than 8 minutes in, an overly emotional and witless officer kills an innocent dog, which there was no need for. It's flagrantly emotionally manipulative for no reason whatsoever, since it didn't advance the plot or characters in any way.

Next, it starts in with the sexist remarks, the insults, the undermining, multiple men ganging up in acting arrogant and condescending. One of them is purportedly 'mentoring' another officer-a subordinate, of course. Its incredibly tone deaf and ignorant. The overacting is atrocious, too. How is this supposed to be entertainment? Totally lazy and sh!tty writing/production.
