

NOTEWORTHY

FRED BOCK PUBLISHING GROUP

ARTISTIC EXCELLENCE

*Multifaceted musician excels as conductor,
soloist, composer,
scholar, and educator
with notable performances and national accolades.*

BRADLEY ELLINGBOE

EXECUTIVE EDITOR OF ALLIANCE PUBLICATIONS & NATIONAL MUSIC PUBLISHERS

NMP
NATIONAL MUSIC
PUBLISHERS

FBPG

BRADLEY ELLINGBOE

ABOUT BRADLEY ELLINGBOE

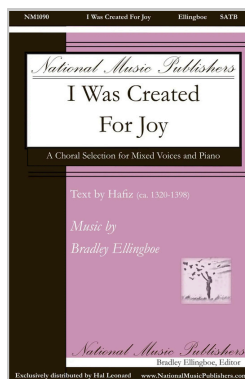

Bradley Ellingboe is a versatile musician with a career spanning conducting, solo performance, composition, and education. He has led choruses in 35 US states and 14 countries. With over 140 published works, Ellingboe's music is performed globally. Honors include knighthood from Norway's king and University of New Mexico's Faculty of the Year. After 30 years, Ellingboe retired from UNM, leaving a legacy in music education and performance.

Bradley Ellingboe is the Executive Editor for Alliance Publications and National Music Publishers.

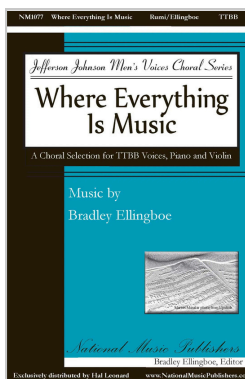

DIGITAL DOWNLOADS

Visit National Music Publishers' website to explore and download Bradley Ellingboe's choral music, available instantly as digital sheet music for vocal ensembles.

VIEW PRODUCTS

I Was Created For Joy

Traditional in style, this SATB choral piece, complemented by piano, is a must-have for its rich tones and depth, featuring Bradley Ellingboe's masterful arrangement of Hafiz's timeless text, highly recommended.

View Products

Where Everything Is Music

Persian poet Rumi's poetry to music, featuring solo violin and piano, evoking the sea's sounds. For advanced high school and college ensembles.

View Products

Hate Has No World

Commissioned for an international high school choral festival, this SATB piece sets Wendell Berry's dramatic text to music, promoting peace and inclusivity with piano and body percussion.

View Products