ELENA SHARKOVA

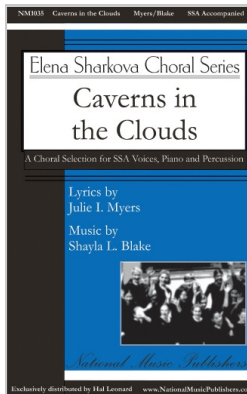

ABOUT ELENA SHARKOVA

A native of St. Petersburg, Russia, received rigorous musical training from a young age. She holds degrees from the Rimsky-Korsakov State Conservatory and began her career as a professional choral singer. After moving to the US in 1993, she pursued conducting and teaching, serving as a music professor at Western Michigan and San Jose State Universities.

Today, Elena Sharkova is recognized at the international choral scene as one of the profession's leading experts on youth choral music education and a much sought-after guest conductor with a unique and inspiring voice.
