Alright, guys, today's episode is going to be super quick. Welcome to the Blogger Breakthrough Podcast. I'm your host, Liz Stapleton from ElizabethStapleton.com and the founder of the Blogger Breakthrough Summit. In today's episode, I'm super excited to be announcing Birthday Month Bonuses. So you're probably like, what are birthday month bonuses? Well, September is my birthday month, on the 13th to be exact, so I've decided that every day leading up to my birthday, I'm going to send an email out to my list with a freebie - a resource, a guide, a PDF, a tool, something free that will help them blog better.

And I'm calling each of these part of my Birthday Month Bonus. So you're probably wondering - "How do I sign up so that I can get all this good stuff?", because today is day one. Just go to ElizabethStapleton.com/birthdaybonuses and you'll find a form so you can sign up to get all these awesome freebies. So I want to give you a quick preview of what you're going to be getting because you're awesome and listening to this episode. So here's kind of some of the things you can expect to get as bonuses this month, it's just a sampling: Affiliate Disclosure Swipe Copy (I usually sell this for $19), 10 Pin Templates, the Perfect Pinterest Profile Checklist, 33 stock photos (because I'm turning 33), plus a lot more. So if you want to get in on all that goodness, be sure to sign up. Just go to Elizabethstapleton.com/birthdaybonuses and with that I'm going to sign off. Like I said, it was going to be super-fast today.
