

Hope: Needy

Hope is that tiny light at the end of a long tunnel. Do you have hope? Or are you the one who craves hope? Everyone either possesses hope, or feels an urgent need for it now! If you need hope, I've got good news for you.

Intro

Hope comes from relationships, not dreams or wishes. For example, if I have a job and a good relationship with my boss, I should expect to receive a paycheck from my employer. If I have the relationship, money can be expected. But if I am unemployed, if I don't have that relationship, I have no expectation. I have no such hope.

I have a hope of living forever. Do you want to live eternally? Some have such a small view of their world that such a hope would seem foolish. Their problem may be that they are their own god. And their god can't provide even a flicker of hope.

But the creator of this world expects every single individual to respect Him. And IF He is recognized as divine, now any person CAN find hope.

But How? Where? Well, Nature can be observed. You can see its laws, its predictability, its amazing features and sights. Was the creator leaving mankind a TRAIL of evidence, maybe evidence you can find? Could this evidence become a portal to a relationship with Him? I believe the answer is Yes.

What if that same creator left a written record of Himself? Could his entire message be on a cave wall? Or on a writing on a rock in the desert?

Or, could the designer have given His message to a few people that recorded it? Is it possible for his story to be collected, catalogued, and correlated? Is that not what the Bible is? God telling his story to man.

Jesus came trying to give hope to the people around him. He wanted a relationship with them. He was rejected at Nazareth. There is a video, below, about his rejection. Check out the link.

But he moved to Capernaum. The creator recorded this for you. Matthew 4:13, 16 And leaving Nazareth he went and lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali,”. Later he added, “the people DWELLING in DARKNESS have seen a GREAT LIGHT, and for those dwelling in the region and SHADOW of death, on them a LIGHT HAS DAWNED.”

Those people saw a tiny distant light, but a light none-the-less. Because they were developing a relationship with him, THEY began to find hope.

If YOU could read His record, YOU might develop a relationship. And HE could then show you that hope of living forever.

Hope is possible.
