It creates a world where being a superhero is at best a double-edged sword and no triumph is likely to be anything but short- lived. I remember while watching The Dark knight my jaw was clenched during the entire movie. Coming to the actors Bale, Morgan Freeman, Gary Oldman, Michael Caine and Aaron Eckhart have all portrayed their characters really well. However the one who really stole the show is Heath Leadger who has portrayed The Joker with finesse and darkness blended with it. Its simply perfection at its best. What else can we say? Nolan has showed why he is one of the most admired and love director.

First of all, I will have to be slightly redundant and agree with every one else that this is the best motion picture representation of a comic book title ever made. Yes, I have seen and considered films such as the Spider Man Series, The X-Men trilogy, The Incredible Hulk (the 2008 version, not that waste of film, money, time, and energy that was made in 2003) and any other one I forgot to mention but this film is the best. Mostly because it was spectacular in one area that most comic book films usually fall short, an emotionally engaging PLOT. with just enough action and suspense to keep you engaged through out. Trust Me.

However, to be completely honest, there was only one role in this film that stood out. as a matter of fact, the phrase "stood out, does not do justice to what the late Heath Ledger brought to the character of the Joker. Michael Cain, Morgan Freeman, and Gary Oldman did good jobs with the roles they were given. Christian Bale has the look to pull off a successful Bruce Wayne but he's a less than average Batman (the voice is horrible. I know the Academy does not put much stock in these types of movies for Oscar nominations but Ledger is deserving of a nomination if nothing else. If Johnny Depp could get the nod for Jack Sparrow, Ledger can definitely be nominated for The Joker. When The Joker was not on screen I was in high anticipation of his return. This role will definitely be regarded as one of the fiercest portrayals of a villain in the history of villainism (my created word. The movie is called the Dark Knight, but it is apotheosized by the psychopathic clown.
