Greetings from Lithuania.

"The Meg" (2018) is the kinda fun popcorn movie i was expecting it to be. It doesn't take itself too seriously, nor should you. Special effects were pretty cool, pacing of this movie was great - at running time 1 h 45 min this flick never dragged and was involving from start till finish. As there isn't really much to talk about acting here, the bottom line for this movie would be - its big and dumb and fun. Popcorn flick that delivers what it promises to.

If u like shark movies, watch this.

The best shark movie is here. A great action movie in the style of some of the classics! Pure carnage and action with the cheeky humour you would expect... very annoyed at reviews saying all positive reviews are fake! Have been following Steve for years and all the trials it took to get this on the big screen.
