

In this obscure and Gothic tale, one attractive girl, Evey (Natalie Portman), gets involved accidentally in a terrorist attack, perpetrated by a masked and megalomaniac character, V (Hugo Weaving). V is following the same steps of Guy Fawkes, a sort of terrorist of the XVII century, who wanted to blow up the English Parliament in London. However, in present time, the Orwellian London lives under the fascist government of Chancellor Adam (Sir John Hurt), and V will fight against his regime, using the power of powder, blowing up important buildings. Evey will be chased by the Secret Police, thinking that she's the accomplice of V, who will accomplish Fawkes' mission of destroying the Parliament on the 5th of November, in this mixture of The Phantom of the Opera, George Orwell's 1984, and Batman.

V per vendetta movie online full. V per vendetta movie online english. This movie is a symptom of our time: wrapped in SM-dolls and action-cliché we get a badly hidden glorification of left wing terror. I mean blowing up parliament and feeling great about it! Is this the hero of our time? Once this masked coward fights against an coldwar caricature of a fascist by blowing up the building that represent the oldest democracy - the building that even is wrapped with our Lords prayer around the walls, I think to myself: Are the cineasts of these days so set on breaking down all old and firm set orders, that they applaud this demonstration of anti-western violence and terror - even the koran is praised - or are they really so in loss of spirit and education that the action alone is an excuse for barbarianism.

"V For Vendetta" ranks high amongst dark comic books adaptations. In the likes of "The Crow. V" creates a world where the audience can feel immersed on it. The political aspects are very real and any democratic nation may feel related to it. Corruption, higher interests, social decadence and more are displayed in a very honest and brutal manner.

There are plenty of metaphors that will leave you questioning about your country's political system.

The acting is top notch. N. Portman is an absolute beauty and delivers a brave performance. The moment where she cries in the rain is powerful. Hugo Weaving steals the show. One of the best revolution oriented movies of the new millennium.
