SOUTH CAROLINA CHIROPRACTIC ASSOCIATION AUTHORIZATION

Your chiropractor and members of the practice staff may need to disclose your name, address, phone number, billing information and your clinical records to the South Carolina Chiropractic Association (SCCA). This disclosure will be made if we need the SCCA's assistance to receive reimbursement for your services or, we need the SCCA's Assistance because the party responsible for reimbursing your services has improperly processed your claim.

By signing this form you are giving us authorization to send the SCCA this information. You are also giving the SCCA authorization to re-disclose your information to the party responsible for the payment of your services, the SCCA's legal counsel, and state or federal agencies that may be asked to intercede on your behalf.

You may restrict the individuals or organizations to whom your health care information is released or revoke your authorization to us at any time; however, your revocation must be in writing and mailed to us at our office address. We will not be able to honor your revocation request if we have already released your health information before we receive your request to revoke your authorization.

Information that we use or disclose based on the authorization you are giving us may be subject to re-disclosure by the person who receives the information and may no longer be protected by the federal privacy rules. You have the right to refuse to give us this authorization. If you do not give us the authorization, it will not affect the treatment we provide to you or our methods we use to obtain reimbursement for your care. You may inspect or copy the information that we may send to the SCCA at any time. (§164.524).

This notice is effective as of _____ . This authorization will expire seven years after the date which you last received services from us.

I authorize you to use or disclose my health information in the manner described above. I am also acknowledging that I have received a copy of this authorization.
